

Job Opportunity: Secondary Mathematics Teacher – EBSA Support

Rebuilding Confidence. Restoring Futures.

We are seeking a compassionate and creative Mathematics Teacher to join our dedicated team, supporting secondary-aged students experiencing Emotionally Based School Avoidance (EBSA).

-  Location: Sage Education Provision, 19C Longhill Road, March, Cambridgeshire PE15 0BL
-  Position: Permanent – Full-time and Part-time considered, flexible working hours available
-  Start Date: September 2025
-  Pay: MPS/UPS dependent on experience

About Us:

Sage Education Provision is an alternative provision, delivering high-quality, personalised education for pupils experiencing emotionally based school avoidance (EBSA) who may be struggling to attend a mainstream school setting due to anxiety or medical needs.

This unique approach focuses on increasing engagement with learning, fostering a positive sense of self-worth, and building self-esteem and self-confidence. We also support the entire family, assisting with EHCP applications, SEND testing and accessing external support agencies.

Through tailored support, we aim to enhance pupils' knowledge of themselves, ultimately enabling them to overcome barriers to education and thrive academically and emotionally.

About the Role:

This role focuses on delivering personalised Mathematics education to students who have struggled to access mainstream schooling due to anxiety, trauma, medical needs or other emotional barriers. You'll work in a small, nurturing environment, building trust and confidence through patient, student-led teaching. You will teach on-site, in small groups.

What We're Looking For:

- Qualified Teacher Status (QTS/QTLS) or equivalent (experienced UQTs will be considered)
- Experience teaching Mathematics at Key Stage 3 and 4
- A trauma-informed, flexible, and empathetic approach to teaching
- Work collaboratively with other professionals to support the students' overall development
- An understanding of EBSA and the barriers faced by these learners
- A passion for supporting students to re-engage with learning at their own pace

What We Offer:

- Small class sizes and 1:1 teaching opportunities
- Supportive, experienced staff team and wellbeing-focused leadership
- Ongoing CPD in mental health, trauma-informed practice, and SEND
- A safe, calm, and student-focused environment
- Competitive salary
- Flexible working hours

 You won't just be teaching Maths—you'll be helping students rebuild their confidence, rediscover their potential, and take steps back into learning.

 Apply Today: Complete the application form and return to gemma@sageeducationprovision.com

 Closing Date: Thursday 22nd May 2025, 5pm. Interviews will take place the week of the 26th May 2025.

 Learn more at: Website - www.sageeducationprovision.com
Facebook - <https://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=61570279407000>
LinkedIn - <https://www.linkedin.com/company/sage-education-provision/>

Sage Education Provision is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all children and young people. We expect all staff to actively share this commitment. All appointments will be subject to the taking of satisfactory references and enhanced DBS checks in line with the need to create and maintain a safe culture in our recruitment.

Applicants are thanked for their interest in Sage Education Provision. We are unable to accept CVs.

If you require further details, would like an informal chat or visit the provision before applying, please contact: Gemma Fulcher, Director, Sage Education Provision via email: gemma@sageeducationprovision.com or via telephone: 01354 572449